

ATLANTIS COLLECTION

We proudly present a new collection of wedding stationery deeply rooted in ancient tradition of victorian printing. Made manually or on hand operated presses, it uses blind embossing, letterpress and raised ink. Linen envelopes and silk ribbons as well as exclusive textured papers assembled here create a unipue quality that cannot be accomplished in any modern print shop.

We are one of the very few companies putting at your service both-ancient and modern equipment all in house. The collection simply offers you an unseen elsewhere choice of fantastic products and services.

ENJOY!
